Secretary's Report

uring the year 2019-20, CSS celebrated its Golden Jubilee on completion of 50 successful years in the development sector, expanding its work in over 10 blocks of Ranchi, Gumla and Hazaribagh districts of Jharkhand. We feel delighted that CSS has been able to reach larger number of direct beneficiaries which could be possible due to constant efforts and determination of CSS staff and management team, Board, community and support of donors. CSS's efforts have always been to update itself on the latest rules, policies and regulation of the government in the context of its work and legal aspects and it always tries to address the issues keeping in mind its core values of Equity, Equality, Cooperation and Mutual Participation. The highlight of achievements of CSS during this year have been: trained gender champions and change makers taking initiatives against VAWG, farmers clubs, micro microenterprises promoted to establish livelihood models, 30 peer groups of adolescents, 10 panchayat-level parents associations, JDJM (a state level DPO forum promoted by CSS)taking initiatives in the state and the registration of MISSI Women Farmers' Cooperative Society Limited which identifies women as 'farmers' and ensures participation of women with special abilities. CSS emphasizes greatly on preparing a second line leadership in the community by promoting youth and adolescent groups to ensure sensitive and informed future leaders for the cause and concern of the marginalized and weaker sections of the society.

CSS has been engaged in activities related to gender, health, education, disability, child care and protection, livelihood, youth and women empowerment for many years now. In particular, it is encouraging to see that the principles of child safeguarding, gender equality and inclusive society is contained in the Indian Constitution, legal system and government policies and schemes, however, social inequalities and discrimination are still prevalent because of the wide gap between these principles and the ground reality. It is here that CSS plays an important role in proper implementation of government acts and policies, strengthening of implementing structures in remote villages to ensure that even the last needy person benefits from the programmes and schemes. This was more important when towards the end of this financial year we saw the outbreak of the COVID-19 pandemic which emerged as a big challenge for the society.

At the outset I would like to extend my sincere regards to all donors and network partners for their trust and cooperation- CBM, Andheri Hilfe Bonn, Oxfam India, Stichting Kinderpostzegels Nederland, CIF Mumbai, NBJK, BVJF, and other networks, officials and well-wishers who have been a part of yet another one-year journey with CSS.

With best wishes

Sachi Kumari Secretary, CSS email: css_sachi@yahoo.co.in

Seminar on importance of regional language, art & culture for socio-economic development of Jharkhand

CSS has always stepped forward to preserve and promote the culture and heritage of Jharkhand. In 2019, a cultural meet was organised by CSS in Daladili village of Ratu-Ranchi in which prominent cultural leaders, writers, academicians and linguists were present. They suggested that the regional languages should be included in the primary education and decided to advocate to the State government regarding this. They explained that the inclusion of these languages can be seen as a way to preserve the cultural identity of the indigenous groups. Dr. Girdhari Ram Gounjhu (a prolific writer and former HOD, regional dept., Ranchi University and the joint secretary of CSS) expressed about the significance of three forms of languages in a person's life- native language, national language and global language and how each one is important. From the desk of Boardmembers

CSS since its inception has been working at grass-root level on socio- economic and cultural aspects. It holds a special place amongst the vulnerable and marginalised sections of the society and is dedicated towards women, children, persons with disabilities, poverty stricken. Due to limited resources we are facing difficulties in running our schools however, we hope that with the support of community we can make effective use of the infrastructure. We could not achieve the outcomes in this year without support and guidance from our donors along with participation of community, and dedicated efforts of staff team, MISSI members and JDJM which is an emerging organisation at the state level. I express gratitude towards them for their immense support. I hope that CSS excels further in its work under its strong women leadership.

Sushil Mahto President, Chotanagpur Sanskritik Sangh

CSS worked through 7 main projects in 2019 which engaged 36 full-time staffs and 6 paid volunteers. It covered 3 districts of Iharkhand during this year and followed all the rules related to finance and accounts. As we know there are changes in rules and regulations for NGOs on a daily basis however, we are preparing ourselves to adapt to them. But we also know that the path forward is not easy and running such a voluntary organisation might be more challenging in future. Despite this, we are always committed to our work for ensuring the well-being of the community.
